Should you cancel your package, and you have a registry, your registry will immediately be closed. You have one year to rebook a new package that is no less than 75% of the original package price. All minimums as previously stated above, must still be met. All registry money is held in trust until a new package is deposited upon.

If a new package is not booked within one year of cancelation, a $500 cancelation fee will be deducted from the honeymoon registry funds. The remaining funds will be sent to you with the list of gifts given. If there is less than $500 in your registry, the balance of the cancelation fee will be automatically charged to your credit card, and the remaining funds sent with a list of the gifts given. If the cancelation penalties are disputed, or AMT American Express Travel's Honeymoon Registry is defrauded, or any attempt to defraud, dispute or manipulate the terms of this contract is made at any time during the cancelation process, the cancelation fee will rise to $1,000 plus legal fees.
